Don't Be Left Out of the Directory!

The Bay Business Group is in the process of producing a new type of membership directory that will be in both electronic and hard copy form and will be directed to all of the residents of the beaches, Dunkirk and other nearby communities. The BBG's theme this year is 'Buy Local – Buy BBG.'

What we need from you...

Your name, business or organization name, address, phone numbers, fax number, email and website address.

A photo of you and a photo of your business, store or product (the higher the resolution the better.)

A short bio (limited to 250 words) telling us about yourself, how and why you started your business, and what you hope to accomplish .

A brief description of your business or services

A logo (if applicable- the higher the resolution the better.)

A coupon if desired (which will be limited to about 1/3 page) email Stephanie with this information by November 5th.

Beach Trolley Advertising 2011

As in 2010, your advertising will reach from Dunkirk to Deale on three trolleys. And, we will continue both inside and outside of the trolley advertising. For 15 weeks, from Memorial Day through Labor Day, your ad will appear throughout Northern Calvert and Southern Anne Arundel counties.

To show your support of the Beach Trolley Association trolley, please sign and return the contract found on the BBG Website with payment no later than April 15, 2011. (To qualify for 10% savings, you must return this contract and full payment by November 15, 2010.)
