

BBG MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

Meeting Date: 6/21/06

Location: Bayhill Market

President Lynda Striegel opened the meeting offering our gratitude to Chuck Ruttkay for continuing to host our meetings.

New members and visitors were introduced: Anna McSweeney from Anna Maria's Italian Market & Deli which will be opening in Owings near Sneades, Diane Gillespie of SMECO, Leanne—owner of Bay Treasures, North Beach Mayor Mark Frazer, and new Calvert County representative to the Bay Weekly, Amy Garris.

Mayor Mark Frazer had the floor briefly to invite members to the Rod & Reel next Friday, June 30 at 5PM to hear the announcement of his candidacy for County Commissioner in our next election.

Lisa Payne spoke to the grand success of her new shop Seascapes.

Delegate Sue Kullen was our featured speaker. She gave us an overview of her work over the past 2 years and her current campaign to be re-elected. Sue fielded questions from our members as well.

Sue noted that the Southern Maryland Delegation Meeting takes place every Friday morning at 8:30AM. Concerned citizens and business may join them and have the floor for 10-30 minutes to air concerns. You may contact Sue at 410-586-9575 for more information.

Eleanor Nelson spoke about our Strategic Plan we have been working on. We agreed that we need to focus on action items to move our plan along.

We approved a donation of $400 to Stacy Allen of the Bay Arts Center for art scholarships. It was also announced that the Chesapeake Beach Railway Museum will host a Vintage Swimsuit Show on July 1, 2006. This is a charity event to raise funds for the museum. Admission is $25.00.

Our next meeting will be held at the Bayhill Market on July 19, 2006 at 8:30AM. Our guest speaker will be Commissioner David Hale (R) who is running for Calvert County Delegate to the Maryland House of Delegates.

Treasurer Russ Mogel reported on our financial status: Petty Cash: $59.31, Checking: $145.58 and Savings: $4525.52.

Respectfully submitted, Cathy Ropiski, Secretary
