

BBG MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

Meeting Date: November 15, 2006

Location: Bayhill Market

1. President Lynda Striegel opened the meeting offering our gratitude to Chuck Ruttkay for continuing to host our meetings.
2. New members and guests were introduced: Diane Burr who recently moved to NB and plans to open a business consulting company & Eileen Baca who is the new Artworks President.
3. Kaylan Martin-Somerville, Director of Development for the Big Brothers Big Sisters, spoke about her organization and the possibilities of working jointly with the BBG. She may be reached at 800-881-6783 or at Kaylan.comerville@bbbssomd.org.
4. Joanie Kilmon and Robbie McGaughran of the Twin Beaches Library gave an interesting presentation on resources for businesses at the library. There are fax and computer services available plus business books, newspapers, database access, and more. The library staff is ready to help! Call 410-257-2411 for more information.
5. Hilary Daily and Cathy Ropiski of the Special Events Committee, shared information about the successful Haunted Boardwalk in October and the upcoming Holidays at the Beaches celebration on December 2 & 3.
6. Elizabeth McWilliams shared information about the Twin Beach Players production of A Christmas Carol. Tickets are on sale at Richard's Bayside Florist and at The Bayhill Market. Tickets do sell out, so buy early! There were advertising opportunities in the program, but the deadline for submission has passed.
7. Eleanor Nelson spoke to us about a co-op type ad in the Bay Weekly's December 14 issue.
8. Funding for flyer copies for the Holiday at the Beaches up to $700 and funding of $150 for a second Bay Weekly group ad for December 14 were approved by a majority vote of those present.
9. Lyn spoke to the group about forming committees to better organize activities for 2007.
10. Marilyn Van Wagner gave a review of the Bus Committee's work this year.
11. We discussed the need for a larger meeting space. Norma Robertson is in the process of contacting the Rod N Reel and Celia Molofsky of Century 21 offered the possibility of using a meeting room at their office in North Beach.
12. Treasurer Russ Mogel was not present and there was no Treasurer's Report.
13. Our next meeting will be held at the Bayhill Market on December 20, 2006 at 8:30AM.

Respectfully submitted,
Cathy Ropiski, Secretary
